PLASTIC GRANNIES

THE GROTTO SANTA'S MESSAGE HAD BECOME LOST IN TRANSLATION TO THE GRANNIES.

Plastic Grannies is the creation of artist/writer, Mychailo 'Mike' Kazybrid, who has worked professionally in the comic book industry for over 36 years, this mainly on licensed characters and titles such as Wallace & Gromit, Shaun the Sheep, Duckula, Dangermouse, The Tick, Matt and the Cat (Transformers UK), to mention but a small few.

His work equally includes six years producing daily cartoon strips for provincial newspapers such as the Bradford Telegraph & Argus, and later the Manchester Evening News, and more recently drawing the Wallace & Gromit daily cartoon strip in The Sun. His work has ranged from children's books, international comic strips for mobile phones, to four years in broadcast television. Much of his artwork is showcased on <http://kazybridscharactercreation.blogspot.com/>, this includes showing original pencils and inks of the Wallace & Gromit strips. His cartoons can also be seen in the Two Men and a Ghost feature in Haunted Magazine.

And her hottest interview yet...

Hi Charley, we are so glad to have you in our magazine! How does it feel to appear in Elite? Hello all... Ever so happy! I love published work... and I've known of Elite for a while now! I'm so over due an appearance ! :D

So what have you been up to recently? Christmas shopping and I have just been to Las Vegas on a trip :) lots of work and being cold mainly though :(

Who are your modeling aspirations? I know many people are not fans of Katie Price but I do believe she's very successful and lucky :) to be fair... all models I'm surrounded by inspire me!

How did you get in to modelling and what has been your best experiences so far? I got into modelling 3 years ago... I went a very long time being overweight and due to nasty comments from 'friends' I decided to do something about it... somehow I managed to keep my big boobs so I thought I best put them to good use :) I had a friend from school, Brooke, who was modelling straight from school and she really helped me at the beginning.

If you could do a sexy photo shoot with any model, who'd it be? Ooh that's hard... Someone similar to me I guess. But there are so many to choose from! All the girls/models I know and love...

What's the best thing about having big boobs? The attention :) and constantly being told 'I wish I had your boobs'.

Charlotte Green

Photographer: John Farrar

Photographer: John Farrar

What are your best assets? I really like my eyes and my lips hence my photos by John Farrar, but I'm told my boobies are the best :)

Have you ever popped out in public? Never actually :) my bras are rather large..

If you could be a man for the day, what would you do? That's hard... Fix all the things that need fixing in the house... and sit in the pub and drink beer and listen to all of the other men talk about us women :)

Is there a celebrity you fancy but shouldn't? No I don't think so... Danny Dyer and Will Smith are yummy.. oh and Jason Statham!

Do you ask girls to feel your boobs? No most girls ask to feel mine :)

If you could be in charge of Elite for a week, what would you do? Hehe... ask all the viewers to send in naughty photos of themselves... and print them with funny stories :)

So how can a guy impress you? By ignoring me believe it or not... I don't like the typical gameshow host... Someone who I have to chase is far more fun :)

What kind of girl would you go out for if you were a man? Me! Lol... Confident... Gorgeous of course... Lots of personality and honesty... Everything I want in a man I suppose.

What would you do if you had three wishes?

Money of course... (as much as I'm allowed!)
To stop animal cruelty in THE WORLD...
And to stop murder...

What is the naughtiest thing you have done? Sex in a swimming pool... Very naughty... Very sexy and very WET!

What is the naughtiest thing you want to do? Sex on the Beach! Seriously... Bored of asking for it as a drink I want the real thing.

What's your trademark move in the bedroom?
Ooh naughty... hmm let's just say my boobies like to take over :)

What's a guaranteed turn-on for you? Ooh even more naughty... I like my Nipples to be played with :) and I like a man taking over, if you know what I mean.

What's your rude fancy-dress outfit of choice?

I love to wear secretary gear... Tights... Pencil skirt... Tight shirt and specs.

Have you ever been asked for one of your photos to be used for something really odd? No never actually... It's very flattering being asked to just sign them :)

Could you beat a kangaroo in a fight? Have you seen the size of my boobs? I'd just knock it out with them haha.

Blonde or brunette? I love both! I've been blonde and brunette!

Has any girl in particular blown you away over the years? All the girls at Bluebird... and Megan fox of course.

Finally, do you have a message for our loyal readers? Thanks for reading my interview... and viewing my images and for being supportive of everyone in the mag and at Elite Online. Mwah x

DIARY OF A DRUNK:

DIARY OF A DRUNK: HYPOCRISY AND IGNORANCE GO FOR A PINT ON NANA'S LANE

BY ADAM JAMESON

Hello boys and girl are we sitting comfortably? Good. Today we're all going to learn a lesson about hypocrisy and ignorance. Now I'm going to assume you don't know what either of those are because we live in Cameron's Britain and we can blame all of society's ills on the budget cuts, isn't that lovely?

There once were two people called Liza and Nathan. They were awful people who often cavorted with liberal democrats and other such silly buggers. Because they were northern, they were pulling a sickie. In the north this is what people do instead of requesting holiday, as they believe asking for a holiday will lead to southernisms.

Since the north was closed down by George Osborne, who believed the place to be a myth conjured up by labour to win elections, the north has become a cold terrifying place ran by evil hobgoblins created by Special Brew. The only escape from the hobgoblins is to work in The Call Centre.

The Call Centre takes up most of the North and is wildly blamed for release of the shadow people, previously healthy people who, after staring too long at a computer screen in a call centre, changed into terrifying creatures from the nightmares of a stoned dog.

Nana's lane is a magical land where Sue's mother is often found till 3am being violently kidnapped by an ogre for 10 to 15 minutes under a bridge and then vomiting in a "Ye Old Just Eat." Don't look at me like that Sue, 6 years old is old enough to learn the truth about your parents, I'll tell you the story about your dad and the half fish half mammal next week.

But back to our intrepid drunks, who had found a trendy indie bar ran by a talking horse. Trendy indie bars are created when the Fay people of Dalston Forest, flick their fringes and the fairy dust hairspray they use creates kooky little drinking dens that only have a half-life of 4 months.

Liza and Nathan were sitting drinking crazy beers of different colours, they must have been looking for a particular type of beer because they drank many in such a small amount of time. Liza was talking about how she wanted to become the “new her” using the gym and healthy eating, which is of course bullshit because the only way to make yourself the “new you” is by performing a fakeoplast with a witch doctor.

While lying about how she was changing herself she mentioned how she was starting to use sun beds, because being pale reminded her of the time she was locked in a shed by a wicked family friend known under the alias of “Auntie” and was forced to dance the tango by angry pale spiders. Nathan was aghast at this news, because he thought the use of sun beds was the work of the devil, who is a well known sun bed user from Essex. He said using sun beds would kill Liza within the year and turn her skin into loganberries and nobody wants this.

Liza replied that using sun beds was healthy and that Nathan should get out of her business since he was taking cocaine again. Now boys and girls as we learned last week, cocaine is a nasty overpriced potion created when mermaid eggs are mixed with pixie tears in a meth cauldron. At this point Liza and Nathan began talking in URL's, bringing up various studies by voodoo merchants about why the other was wrong. Nathan said Liza should accept her awful pale skin and stop risking a skin booboo. Liza pointed out Nathan was risking a lung snafu and lifetime addiction meaning he'd have to give hand jobs to sea folk and dragons for farthings.

What we have here children is an example of ignorance. Both Liza and Nathan were unaware of the dangers they were putting their silly, pointless lives in. And hypocrisy because Nathan was just as bad as Liza but believed the health risks didn't apply to him, silly Nathan. But the main example of ignorance, Nathan and Liza were so busy arguing they didn't see the UPS cart coming.

This is why I was late today, double funerals really eat up your morning and if Ofsted ask, we learnt about the 6 times table. Turns out 60 did it.

Today I spoke to the most impatient man I've ever spoken to. He really was unbelievable and obviously didn't realise that there are also other people in the country waiting for heating installation. I think he assumed that he had his own engineer assigned to him, sitting biting his fingernails and waiting for his call.

Liza: Hi you're through to...

Mr Restless: Hi. Look I'm not happy, yeah?

Liza: Oh right, OK. What's the problem?

Mr Restless: I had an installer round yesterday to put my new radiators in?

Pause

Liza: Right...

Mr Restless: Yeah. And I wanted it on that wall but he's put it on this one. I'm not very impressed.

Liza: So... OK. He's put it in the wrong place?

Mr Restless: Well yeah because I need it on the other side but he says it can't go there.

Liza: OK. Well our engineers are technically trained so if he says it can't go there then you'll have to have it where he's put it.

Mr Restless: No. It looks stupid. I need it moving quickly because my brother's going mad.

Liza: I can't have him move it. It's passed it's inspection which means it's safe and if he's put it there then he's put it there for a reason.

Swearing and muttering

Mr Restless: Well what am I meant to do now? My brother's my landlord and he's going mental saying that the bathroom looks stupid. The radiator needs to be on the other wall so we can hang our towels next to the sink. It just doesn't look right.

Liza: OK, OK. What I can do, is I can book you in again but you'll have to pay this time because all of your funding was used last time.

Mr Restless: What? No.

Liza: Well yes. Because there's nothing wrong with the job we did before... for free.

Mr Restless: Well I can't afford it.

Liza: Then the radiator would have to stay where it is, sorry.

Mr Restless: What? On the floor?

Pause

Liza: What?

Mr Restless: My brother went mad, yeah? And he ripped it all out.

Liza: Then we can't send anyone round.

Mr Restless: So what will I do now?! I've got no heating, you hear me?

Liza: Well then your brother shouldn't have ripped it out.

Mr Restless: This isn't on, this is unfair, yeah? Because like, it's not my fault he ripped it out.

Liza: No, it's his fault. He'll have to pay for a new heating system to be put in if he has ripped the old one out. Sorry. Was there anything else I can help you with?

Phone goes dead

I just can't believe that this man had £3000 worth of free heating put into his home and he was being fussy about where the radiator was placed. What sort of person in their right mind would rip out £3000 worth of brand new, FREE heating... without finding out whether it would be replaced?

Tell us a bit about yourself: I was born in Poland and came to England few years ago and i really like it over here :)

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? My mate told me about this photographer who was looking for models for a project, so I sent him pictures and he liked me. We then set up a session last year and I really enjoyed it.

Who would you marry, kiss and avoid? I would marry Ashton Kutcher, kiss Siva Kaneswaran, and avoid...hmm I can't think of anyone...

If you could eat one food for the rest of your life what would it be? It would definitely be one of my favourite meals which my mum is best at....krokiety z barszczem czerwonym. Yum yum :)

What are your hobbies? I love travel, fashion, windsurfing, working out and partying.

Do you have any other talents? I love painting and drawing in my spare time, although lately, I don't have much time to do it.

What's your best night out? A night out with the girls, especially with my sister. We always have a great time no matter where we go.

Favourite Music: I love house music, funky a bit of electro, but to be honest I can listen to anything it just depends on what mood I'm in.

What's your best part of your body? It would definitely be my belly :)

Are you single or taken? I have been single for a good few years now and I'm finding quite hard to find someone who would not just be my lover but also a soulmate.

Have you ever kissed a girl? Yes, I've kissed a girl... it was one of them drunken nights :)

Celebrity dream date: Ashton Kutcher, he is just my type, tall, dark and has a great sense of humour. We would have a good time!

If Carlsberg manufactured a woman she would probably be called...

“I’m terrible at doing practical jokes cause I have such a guilty conscience that I usually tell the person that I have done something before it happens! Haha.”

Hi Elle, tell us a bit about yourself: Well I am Elle, Hello... I have been modelling for about a year now. I like horror films and True Blood. I am addicted to chocolate and have always got an empty packet of Skittles at the bottom of my bag. I am a little bit of an Introvert, I am happy with my own company or just a girlie night with my best friend. Large groups of people tend to make me slightly nervous as I am not a very loud person and I worry about maybe flailing into the background. However that doesn't mean I am not passionate about what I want, I give 110% into everything I do and if I want something bad enough I will get it

How did you get in to modelling and how long have you been doing it? About a year... my boyfriend suggested I send a few pics to some magazines and my friend took some pictures of me and it kind of took off from there. There are a couple of shoots I wish I didn't do, but I suppose it is all part of the learning process.

What would you see your most memorable shoot was? My most memorable one was the front cover shoot for Front magazine. It was Joe Barnes' last issue as editor and I was really chuffed to be shooting for his last issue cause he is awesome! We were in this massive house in London in their pool and I was with 3 other gorgeous girls messing around on inflatable sharks and shooting them with waterpistols and basically just having an amazing time.

Who are your modelling aspirations? I really admire Arabella Drummond as she has broken the boundary between alternative and mainstream modelling. She is so unique and she doesn't just play off on the fact she has tattoos, she is also incredibly gorgeous and has the face for fashion modelling. She is doing what so many tattooed models want to do, but unfortunately she is just one of a kind. So I really admire her for making it in all sides of modelling.

What are your best assets? I like to recognise my personality as one of my favourite attributes. Like, my physical appearance gets the most attention as that is what comes across in photographs but my personality is going to outlast my looks and I like to know that I have a good sense of humour, kindness, wit and generosity. I am happy with the way I look and of course in my career it is important to look good, but looks aren't the be all and end all and shouldn't define someone.

Well that's disappointing you could of just said your ass! Haha, You do have a good sense of humour to be honest, we can agree with that! So what is the funniest thing you have ever done? Well I just decided to wrap up a bit of coal for my brother for one of his xmas presents! Haha such a bitch thing to do but me and my brother have a lot of banter so he will find it funny. I'm terrible at doing practical jokes cause I have such a guilty conscience that I usually tell the person that I have done something before it happens! Haha.

If you could be in charge of Elite for a week, what would you do? I would give every reader a million pounds and buy them all a llama as a pet...cause who doesn't love a llama.

Well I am sure you could run for Prime Minister with those kind of giveaways... the only problem is we do have a LOT of readers... I am not sure there is enough Llamas in the world. Do you have a second choice or would that just be Llame of me to suggest? Har har har Llame! Hmm I don't know maybe I would say that each month there would be a reader guest editor and they can put some fun things into the mag and add their only little twists. It would make the readers feel like they are connected with the mag. Cause there are some mags out there that pay NO attention to what the readers want, or what models they wanna see in the mag and it ends up annoying the readers.

Is there anything unusual about you? I am very unusual. I am really into the supernatural and I am apparently slightly clairvoyant and can read peoples feelings. So I think that is kind of weird. I also have joint hypertension and I can touch the tip of my thumb to my wrist. Gross! Ha.

Ah creepy! How about this, if you could be a man for day what would you do and why? Or have you possessed a man before... Possessed?! Erm maybe ha. Nah if I was a man for a day I would do the obvious furious masturbating session. I would love to have a penis for a day and poke it everywhere haha! It would also be quite nice to get up in the mornings and shower and dress then leave the house, not the whole annoying routine of being a girl.

What is the naughtiest thing you have done? Well that would be telling, but let's say it involved another girl.

Have you ever kissed a girl? Yes and a lot more, I am just very open minded!

Katy Perry just asked, did you like it?
Loved it, does she want to do it again?

Wow, well that has kept our minds ticking... We have seen your photos everywhere recently you must be 'hot off the press', so what we want to know is... Has anyone ever asked for one of your photos to be used for something really odd? Hmm I have sent signed photos and stuff but not particularly cause they wanna stick my face to a sex doll or anything haha! I generally try not to image what guys do with my pics, I like to innocently imagine they are appreciating my physical form and admiring my dazzling smile.

Could you beat a bear in a fight? NO, have you SEEN the size of bears? I don't know why they call them 'bear hugs' as bears do not want to hug. I once came within about 5 metres from a brown mountain bear when I was in Tennessee. Scary. They want to eat, kill and play... not necessarily in that order.

Can you make a swear word? Hmm... Plunt. Mix between plonker, which is kinda funny and CT.

Ooh sounds interesting! I wouldn't want to get a kick in the plunt that's for sure... any others? Because you sound like you have done this before haha. I really haven't done this before, but I am quite good at puns and stuff. I reckon I could get a job in the Sun one day. I remember when I was little and my mum didn't want to swear in front of me so she just said 'sugar' instead of 'shit' which I think is quite clever. Well done mum.

Blonde or brunette? Hmm this is going to be contraversial but brunette. As of the past few years, brunette models seem to be doing a hell of a lot better than blondes. Most of the famous models are brunette. Lucy Pinder, Rosie Jones, Emma Glover, Amii Grove, Lacey Banghard...Seems like the look at the moment is less 'playboy bunny' and more 'girl next door'

Being a blonde that is admirable of you to say. But has any girl in particular blown you away over the years? Vikki Blows was one of the first topless models that I ever saw and thought 'What? Glamour modelling doesn't have to be tacky?' She just made topless modelling look so cool and edgy. I always used to associate glamour with Jordan and Pamela Anderson. I just thought it was slightly tacky. But when I saw Vikki I was like wow, a metal head, with tattoos and piercings and she is getting well known and now has an awesome following. She kind of made me think that I could possibly do this.

Finally, do you have a message for our loyal readers? You are all awesome in your own unique special little way. That's what our mum used to say :P

SOPHIA CAHILL

Full Name: Sophia Cahill

Age: 28

Home: South Wales

Occupation(s): Glamtorial, commercial and music video model

Tell us a bit about yourself: I have presented many TV shows inc. Channel 4's Big Breakfast, co-starred with Caprice in a British version of American Pie and have had two of my own shows on Sky TV.

Since finishing the filming for my reality show I went on to film a reality series for Sky about 'modern day beauty'. I love my work. I also love to work in radio, my first experience was presenting 'love hour' which I loved!

I have filmed with Universal Studios for cinema release films and 2 top hits with N-Dubz as leading lady.

I am one of the most loving people you'll come across and I'm very loyal to my friends and family. These are the most important things in my life along with my son, of which I am very proud. I am a single mum to two very beautiful little boys.

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? I started modelling after I was a Miss World contestant 11 years ago, since I have modelled for all the UK and International magazines, Playboy UK and American Playboy, and was named 4th in UK top 100 pin up's! I am now a commercial model.

Name 3 people you would either live with, travel around the world with or marry: Live with: A gay friend (male), Fun and man hugs without the ties! Travel around the world with: can I have a group? I'm greedy! I choose Ant, Dec and my besties! ROAD TRIP!!!! Route 66 on Harleys! With one of the girls driving a campervan or converted double decker bus! You can tell I've actually planned this before! Marry: Johnny Knoxville for sure!

If you could eat one food for the rest of your life what would it be? Fruit.

What are your measurements? 32-24-34.

Can you remember your first shoot and what it was like? Wow..... This is a tough one..... we are probably going back 10 years now! I landed a contract with a corset company then and was their sole model for two years!

Best/Worst shoot to date: The best shoot involved a crocodile, me with pink hair, in just a pink leather collar on a chef's counter for Bizarre Mag, although always retaining my modesty, you could only see boobs! Was the funkiest shoot to date! The look really worked and looked amazing! The worst are the cold ones in winter snow!

Your best experience so far: My best experience has been being a mum!

Do you do anything else? I am a British sign language signer. I'm also a Qualified fitness instructor, although I did this as a hobby rather than a career.

What are your hobbies? Dancing the night away! Used to be Boxercise but I am just starting new Thai Kick box in June.

Describe yourself in one sentence: I am spontaneous, hypo, very loving and a little bit loud...

Favourite Music: Rock, pop, chilled, pretty much anything!

Are you single or taken: Single.

Naughtiest thing you've ever done: Naughty...ME?!

Celebrity dream date: Hmm....I'm not a fan of the word 'date', my dream 'fun outing' would be with Flintoff on an adventure weekend.

Future goals: To be a great sign interpreter and mother.

The Story of Saturday Night: Jsky & Trevor Nelson In The Mix + Ballers Everywhere!

I love my Saturday nights; the pinnacle of any week, and the talking point of the next. I love the trail of possibilities that are opened, people watching and banter in action. The flirting, the jokes and the chance to whack out some shapes on the dancefloor. I love it all.

Last Saturday the wannabe wags of the north descended upon the city centre for Manchester United football player Danny Welbeck's birthday party. Also celebrating that night was UK rapper Chipmunk, who was seeing in his 21st birthday at K2 Nightclub. Bijou Club also had their fair share of footballers partying it up with the likes of Jermaine Pennant, Wes Brown, Danny Simpson and youth Manchester United rising star Ezekiel Fryers to name but a few. TOWIE star Mario Falcone was also in town.

I made my way over to Boutique and arrived a little after 11pm. There was a nice amount of people there to begin with, but once I got settled at our table by the DJ booth this soon amassed to a full club. Trevor Nelson arrived fashionably later into the evening and joined our table, at which point it immediately became an agglomeration of Belvedere and Moet (of which we all dipped into congenially).

Trevor Nelson's DJ set was just getting into full swing when Dayid Haye and Rio Ferdinand made their way over to our table. I can remember singing for Rio Ferdinand years ago at an audition for his record label White Chalk. A lot has happened since then. I'm not the same little boy anymore.

GEORGIA HAWKSFIELD

THE BEST THING TO COME OUT OF SOUTH SHIELDS SINCE... LITTLE MIX?

Joe Mcelderry

Full Name: Georgia Hawksfield

Age: 20

Location: South Shields

Tell us a bit about yourself: I hate these parts, you can never describe yourself in a few lines! I'm fun, outgoing, hard-working and driven. I personally think I'm the funniest person in the world... Even if I'm the only one that does! I believe that everything happens for a reason. I also believe that you have to work hard to gain. However, I believe I've also just hit lucky now and again. I constantly try to better myself, not others, just myself.

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? I've been doing it about 1-2 years now, and I got into it by doing a bit modelling for my friends college work, and then the amazing Fraser noticed me and went out of his way to help me take that first step into the real modelling world! So I have to owe it all to the amazing Mr Mutch x

Name 3 people you would either live with, travel around the world with or marry? I would have to live with some sort of maid (I'm so messy), travel around the world with Robin Williams... He is the most fascinating person alive... and marry Olly Murs mmm.

Who would you marry, kiss and avoid? Back to the marriage, would most likely be a right unky man like Gerard Butler, or Simon Cowell (think of the money!), snog Olly Murs and avoid anyone with bad breathe, shoes, fashion sense or lack of sense of humour (mainly the latter!)

If you could eat one food for the rest of your life what would it be? KFC gravy, gravy is good.

What are your measurements? Oh dear lord I can never remember this part.

Height: 5ft8

Dress size: 8

Chest: 32 C

Waist: 32"

I can't remember the rest, but there on my website, www.georgiahawks.co.uk

Can you remember your first shoot and what it was like? My first shoot was for a friend in college who I have now had many successful shoots with since, Shauni Layne. I had much fun and realised how much I enjoyed it!

Best/Worst shoot to date: A good shoot to me is when it is relaxed and you can have fun. I believe the images always come out a lot better as your not under pressure. I've had some bad shoots, been made to feel very uncomfortable. I just carried on though and kept it professional.

Your best experience so far: I had so much fun doing Miss Newcastle Competition 2011. I can honestly say I don't mind in the slightest that I did not win as the whole experience was amazing. I met some amazing new friends, the events I took part in where fun and fab, I got my job at Tup Tup through it but most of all I gained so much more confidence in myself and made my friends, family and myself proud

Do you do anything else? Well I do have a life? Haha. I'm always busy, whether it's working or seeing my friends. I have to be on the go constantly otherwise i get very, very bored. I think i also spend a good 70% of my time eating too....

What are your hobbies? Cross stitching and stamp collecting.... Nah I'm joking. I might sound like a bit of a loser but I don't really have time! I work all week so my weeknights are to be spent with the people I don't get to see as much as I would like. So you could say socialising! I used to play a lot of sport but never have the time now... I should be a lady of leisure!

Do you have any other talents? Not particularly. However, I always win the X Factor when O'm alone singing in my car...

Describe yourself in one sentence: A male personality in a female body.

What's your best night out? I love when I'm at work hosting. It's like a free night out with extra attention! However I'm not with my best friends, so a good night out just takin the p*ss is always so much more fun!

Favourite Music: I will listen to anything, but I am a big fan of r&b, reggae and dancehall!

Are you single or taken: Single and certainly not looking!

Naughtiest thing you've ever done: I can't be revealing those! However I did ride the rodeo bull in Ibiza topless... the photos my friends uploaded for a few days on Facebook proved it! Haha!

Have you ever kissed a girl? Yes and I liked it.

Future goals: To stay as happy as I am now... So whatever it takes to reach that goal really

Any last words for our readers? Don't lower yourself down to anyone elses standards, let them rise to yours. at all times!

Grier

The amazingly talented...

Photographer: GlamPics

Hey, how are you? Tell us a bit about yourself: I'm good thankyou! It's my birthday next week... I am so excited to get back up home to Middlesbrough where I'm originally from and catch up with friends and family. I am a London/Essex girl at heart though it has to be said! I'm addicted to tattoos and false eyelashes and I've spent the last few years singing, dancing and modelling my way through life however I'm now also working as a PA. It's good to prove you have a brain as well! I was part of a girl group last year called Husstle on the X-Factor and my star sign is Capricorn. Is that enough haha...

So what have you been up to?
Working hard and playing hard!
Modelling has taken a bit of a back seat for me the past few months but I am hoping to get stuck back in, in the new year so look out for more shoots!

How did you get in to modelling?
I'm originally from up North and a few years ago I won a few competitions that saw me going on to win to Miss Uk Model Girl and represent Middlesbrough in the Miss England finals. I started to realise how much I enjoyed it and then entered and won Nuts Babe Search in 2008. People started to want to work with me after that so I made the move to London and it just went on from there really.

Single or Taken? Very much single! Altogether now awwwwwww. Haha!

Is this your first photo shoot for a magazine? I've shot for Nuts a few times and have done many shoots with various people that have appeared in Nuts, Zoo, national press etc.

Who are your modeling aspirations? I know she doesn't get the greatest press but I think Katie Orice is a phenomenal model and business woman. I don't think any glamour model will do what she has done again. You can't knock her work.

What are your best assets? I get the most compliments about my bum and my hair even though people never believe that my hair's all mine and constantly ask if I've had bum implants! I haven't it's just massive but who doesn't like curves?!

Is there a celebrity you fancy but shouldn't? There's something a bit fanciable about Simon Cowell, although he's far too old for me, I prefer a toyboy! But a successful man is definitely attractive.

So how can a guy impress you? I like a guy to just be himself and it's the little things that count. The good morning messages, holding the door open etc.

Extravagant gestures aren't important. although a bunch of flowers now and again doesn't go a miss! Haha.

What kind of girl would you go out for if you were a man? Someone just like me... Haha no I think I'd be stalking and trying to pin down Kim Kardashian, she's got to be the perfect woman!

What is the naughtiest thing you have done? I couldn't possibly answer that! You can decide yourselves because I'm far too naughty or am I just not naughty enough...

Have you ever kissed a girl?

Theres too many men I still need to kiss before I move to the women!

What's a guaranteed turn-on for you? It's all in the kiss... If a guy gets that right then you want to know more... Wink wink haha - and I have to say tattoos do it for me everytime, I love a guy thats inked up!!

Could you beat a kangaroo in a fight? I could beat anyone in a fight, I'm a woman, We always win!

Blonde or brunette? Brunette all the way! Whoever said blondes have more fun was lying!

Finally, do you have a message for our loyal readers? I want to send a great big Xmas snog to everyone and hope everyone has a wonderful Christmas and a happy New Year :-) thanks for having me and hopefully be more of me next year mwah x

KALASHNIKOV

More animalistic than the rifle... and she has more bite than the vodka!

Photographer: Glenn Richardson/ GR Photography

Tell us a bit about yourself: Why do you want to work as a model? I just love it! Modelling is my main passion in life and something I want to keep on doing for as long as possible.

How did you get in to modeling and how long have you been doing it? I got into modelling through having online portfolios on various websites. I have been doing it for 2 and a half years now!

Can you remember your first shoot and what it was like? Like it was yesterday! It was a fashion shoot in Bournemouth. I was a bit nervous being in front of the camera for the first time but it was exciting and loads of fun!

What has been your most memorable shoot to date? It's pretty hard to pick out just one! but I can think of a few where I've been enjoying it so much that the time has flown by, and I've been left on a high afterwards!

What are your goals as a model? My goals are to get published a lot more in various magazines and just become more well known.

What are you measurements? 5"3
32B"24"32"

Who is your favourite model? I love Kate Moss...she is just amazing.

How would you describe your style? It varies day to day - but I'd say a kind of laid back modern fashion/alt/grunge glam style...

How do you prepare for a modeling shoot? Stretching and posing in front of the mirror!

What does fashion mean to you? I think fashion is more about the look and feel than just items of clothing- it's all about the attitude :)

Where do you generally shop? Must say I have a bit of a Topshop addiction... but I love it.

Out of all the photos of you, which is your favourite and why? Way too many photos to say overall! but of all the photos I've done in the last few months ago definitely the last shoot I did with Glenn Richardson - filthy fashion!

What is fun and rewarding about modeling? It's fun when you go into a shoot with no set ideas or outfits - then just put bits together and end up with something totally random and amazing! It's a great creative outlet and that's what's so rewarding to me.

What advice do you have for other aspiring models? Be confident in your look, it shows in the pictures! Obviously practice in front of the mirror posing a lot so you know what looks good and what looks not so good.

Who are some of your favourite photographers? Growing up I was a big fan of David Bailey's work. Now I'd say Glenn Richardson hahaha...amongst many other awesome photographers I have worked with over the last couple years!

What distinguishes a good model from a bad one? The knowledge of what poses and looks work for them and which ones don't. Confidence in front of the camera, creativity and the ability to emit an emotion through a photo.

Your best experiences so far? Best experiences are travelling to Crete, Greece and Coutances, France on modelling trips!

What are your likes and dislikes? Likes are creativity, modern fashion and funky glamour... Dislikes are over-posed 70's glamour, disrespectful photographers and general tackiness.

What are your hobbies? When I'm not modelling you'll usually find me out partying, chillin' with friends or sleeping.

Do you have any other talents? I can lick my elbow! Quite a talent I think...

What's your best night out? A fat drum'n'bass event with a selection of awesome people and large amounts of alcohol etc...

Favourite Music: I love a lot of genres including drum'n'bass, reggae, hip hop, rap, dubstep, rock...the list goes on, but d'n'b is definitely the favourite!

Favourite Food: Spinach... Weird I know!

Whats your most favourite thing about your body? Hair, eyes or ass haha.

A woman is the central figure, posing against a light-colored brick wall. She is wearing a grey fur hat with a gold star emblem, dark sunglasses, and a grey patterned scarf. Her outfit consists of a black halter-neck top, a bullet belt across her midsection, and denim shorts. She is holding two assault rifles, one in each hand. To the left, the back of another person's shoulder and arm are visible. The lighting is dramatic, with strong shadows.

NK

Naughtiest thing you've done: Not sure I should publicise that one!

Naughtiest thing you want to do: Not sure I'd publicise that one either...hahah

Single or taken:
Happily single

Any last words for our readers? That's about it! thanks for reading guys :)

TERRIE TALK

Do women prefer men with muscles, or is there something else more important?

Hmm that's a hard one because it's down to personal preference. The guys I go for always tend to be 15 stone or above... I like bigger guys really well built, preferably bald, preferably aged thirty or above, but that's just my taste. I love a bad boy. What I don't like however is posey men, the type who wear more fake tan than me and pout around in tight tops, it's so unattractive. Men should be manly. Guys have got to be down to earth and have a good sense of humor for sure because that's what attracts most girls. The looks thing is just personal preference totally. All girls like different things. You shouldn't have to look a certain way to attract a girl... if a girl doesn't like you for what you look like or who you are then she isn't the girl for you. Always be yourself and never change your appearance or bend your personality to suit anyone. Not ever.

So, it's your man's birthday... What do you suggest to make it a birthday not to forget?

I'm really fun loving and adventurous. I like being out and about, being active and doing fun things! Maybe paintballing, a theme park, go karting or something like that. The whole idea of having a romantic candle lit meal really makes me cringe. I can't stand it. I totally love travelling to, being out and exploring new places.. so maybe a weekend away. a trip to Anne Summers for sexy underwear and a naughty night in never fails either haha.

If people are in need of spicing up a relationship, what would you suggest?

CHANGE! being in a relationship things always get stail after a while, happens in every relationship. you both have to continually put the effort in or it won't work. Don't get stuck in a rut, do more fun things together... go to fun places, book trips away and make sure sex is still fun. It gets routine and boring after a while so if your a girl maybe get some sexy underwear and toys! If your a guy take your girl out somewhere, treat her well and you'll instantly find shes more attracted to you because your showing her you care. Change up where and when you have sex. I believe the more FUN you have in a relationship, the better the sex life too.

You are the expert of lingerie... where should a man go to buy his girlfriend some funky, hip underwear if La senza isn't her thing? I like to find cute internet stores where things are always different. There are loads of them. Find out her favourite colour and get looking. You can't really go wrong even if she thinks what you got is gross, she'll still love the fact you went through the effort for her.

What would you suggest a guy do to get you in the mood? Guys can't really do anything to 'get me in the mood'. If a guy tried to act sexy around me or say something to make me horny... I'd either think he was gay or had a mental problem haha. I like really manly men just being like that makes me find them attractive anyway. Being really sexually confident is a turn on too. Again it's down to the individual girl and what she likes I guess. The best way of finding out is asking her! Sex is useless if you don't know what each other like and there's no way of finding out without asking. Sometimes you can think your doing the right thing and you aren't... sometimes girls don't let on to this because they don't want to hurt your ego. It's sad but it's true. Always ask. Communication is the key.

Sometimes in relationships you change yourself or how you look to make your partner happy. Sometimes it's not until you get out of these relationships that you learn from your mistakes. No relationship is perfect and could never be, they all need work and effort from both sides. With every relationship you learn something new about yourself and from any mistakes you might have made. Number one in mistakes is changing yourself to suit someone else. If someone doesn't like you for who you are, what you do and what you look like then they're obviously not the right person for you.
